STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1889.

NO. 53

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mr. James Thompson is putting the finishing wood work on Mr. D. B. Edmiston's house. It will be a handsome residence when completed.

—Larger number of guests now at both Crab Orchard and Dripping Springs than has been before this season. Mr. D. G. Slaughter did the nice thing Saturday entertaining a large number of invited guests in honor of the staff of the Lancaster paper. The occasion was a most pleasant one. At dinner and supper the table was unexcelled and the hall was just such an occasion as it. G. knows best how to make it, pleasant to all and everybody enjoyed it.

—Melvin & James, who had a saw-mill near Ottensville and shipped a large amount of lumber from this place, have moved their mill to a point near Kings Mountain and will ship on the C. S. now. Mr. Dave Hocker, former sawyer for Melvin & James, has leased or bought the Russell mill and is shipping lumber now from here. W. R. Dillon, who for a time did a large lumber business here is just completing a new lumber switch in Laurel county, three miles from Livingston and expects to do a large business. He is a hustler.

—Mr. S. V. Rowland, of Danville, spent Sunday at the Springs. Mr. H. B. Farris was in Danville Thursday attending the fair. Mr. John Edmiston is a little better, but is very low. With proper care the chances are fair for his recovery. Miss Lockett Dillon has been very sick, but we are glad to say she is much better. Mrs. J. E. Florence, of Stanford, is visiting Mrs. John McChure, of this place. Guy Fish struck a nail very deep in his foot and is quite lame. Dr. J. M. Black has located at Speedwell, Madison Co., and we wish success to him with the bride he captured from our midst, nee Miss Fish.

She's a Journalistic Daisy.

Miss Hetta Coleman, editor of the Brandenburg News, is a business woman without mistake. If some energetic "rural rooster," like Neel Glenn, of the Hopkins County Hustler, for instance, could only persuade her into matrimony, what a team they would make! In this week's News she gives an account of herself. "The News" devil was disposed to be inclined to ill-nature this week," says she, "so we concluded to dispense with his service, and our regular help being away, earning a few honest dollars by the sweat of his brow in the harvest field, we have been somewhat hurried in getting up the paper. Our readers will please not be sparing with that very commendable virtue, charity, in their criticisms of same. Barring one-half column, we have set every inch of reading matter, for this issue, besides two advertisements; have read and corrected proof of same; have printed 24 weekly exchanges and three dailies; have sent out three dimes, written six letters, done some job work, contracted for more, given receipts for something less than 50 subscriptions, and the devil being absent, of course we have had to do the editorial work. Now we are going to make up forms, and if "our man" gets in from the harvest field to run the press the paper will get out in due season."—Owensboro Messenger.

A SNAKE BIT HER.—Mrs. Julia Skolneske, wife of a Hungarian employed on a farm near St. Lawrence, a small village, three miles from Reading, Pa., was out on the Albano Hill picking blackberries, when she was bitten on the leg by a copperhead snake. Thoroughly frightened she ran for home, but the pain in her leg, which had become frightfully swollen, combined with the heat of the sun, was too much for her strength, and she fell to the ground a short distance from her house. Her cries attracted the attention of two gentlemen passing in a carriage, who hastened to assist and relieve her. They found her in fearful agony, but being unable to speak English she could not make them understand what was the matter with her, and, upon attempting to remove her, she fought them fiercely. Thinking she was crazy they removed her to the nearest house, where, when they reached the door-way she gave birth to three female children, all of whom are living. The mother is suffering great agony, but the physicians think it possible that she may recover. The affair has created great excitement in the neighborhood where it occurred. —Philadelphia North American.

With the Brown-Sequard elixir in general use, no office-holder will die. The few who have died heretofore missed a big thing by not living until this great medicine was discovered. The situation is rendered rather more embarrassing for the president, however. Unless the office-seekers resort to assassination, how will Dr. Ben have anything to give them?

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good tea, tooth, diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Denny Druggist

HUSTONVILLE.

—Uncle Billy Braxdale died at his home near Moreland Station Thursday last. His remains were interred in Hustonville cemetery Friday afternoon.

—Geo. D. Barnes will lecture at the Presbyterian church here Tuesday night 13th. His lectures are highly entertaining and edifying and everybody should hear him.

—Christian College is being set in order for school, which will open September 2. The bed-rooms are being fitted up with new furniture and carpets and everything will be made to present an attractive appearance.

—Will Hocker, who has been in California for the last two years, returned to his home in Hustonville a few days ago. He is looking well. While he thinks California is the country of countries, he will probably not return soon, preferring to remain with his relatives and friends. Miss Jennie King, a bright and attractive young lady of Danville, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Carpenter.

—Misses Lou Hocker and Lizzie Drye are in Harrodsburg visiting friends. Miss Fannie O'Mara, on her way from Louisville to her home in Williamsburg, is stopping over a few days with the family of Isaac Steele. Miss Ball, of Junction City, is with Miss Lena Williams. A telegram on the south end of the Carpenter Station & Moreland Turnpike would pay well, at least while Misses Drye and Johnston are visiting that neighborhood. C. C. Carpenter will leave Monday for a week's stay at Dripping Springs. He will accompany one of the handsomest young ladies of Lincoln. A large party from the Givens neighborhood will meet him at the Springs. A party will leave for Cumberland Falls the first of next week.

When Women Should Marry.

Probably the best time for the average civilized woman to marry would be any age between 24 and 36. It is not said that any woman should marry earlier or later than either of these ages; but youth and health and vigor are ordinarily at their highest perfection between these two periods. Early marriages are seldom desirable for girls and that for many reasons. The brain is immature, the reason is feeble, and the character is unformed. The consideration which would prompt a girl to marry at 17 would in many cases have little weight with her at 24. At 17 she is a child, at 24 a woman. Where a girl has intelligent parents the seven years between 17 and 24 are the period when the mind and body are most amenable to wise discipline and best repay the thought and toil devoted to their development. Before 17 few girls have learned to understand what life is, what discipline is, what duty is. They cannot value what is best either in the father's wisdom or in the mother's tenderness. When married at that childish period they are like young recruits taken from the farm and workshop and hurried off to a long campaign without any period of preliminary drill and training, or like a schoolboy removed from school to a cavalry without being sent to the university or to a theological hall. Who can help grieving over a child wife, especially if she have children and a husband who is an inexperienced and possibly exacting boy-man? The ardor of his love soon cools; the visionary bliss of her poetical imagination vanishes like the summer mist; there is nothing left but disappointment and wonder that what promises to be so beautiful and long a day should have clouded over almost before sunrise.—Hospital.

The following appears in the Newport State Journal, headed "Our Bell County Letter." Those who are acquainted with Bell county will know how to take it.

"The election passed off tolerable quiet. Only two men killed; but it is feared that Dan Samuels and Milt Hinkle and Sam Owens will all die also from shots at the poles. If all them three die there'll be three republicans and two democrats gone, which gives a majority of one not killed to the democrats.

"Twain to the Trouble, the poles closed at 5 o'clock, because the Judges and Clerks said they wanted to see the Fun.

We ourselves had a Narry escape from a Stray Bullet, which passed through the Top of Our Hat. If we had bin half an inch longer we would now be goin' around deadlier than a dore male.

It's a good Thing we wasn't no longer than we was."

Aunt Polly—"Why, Zebadiah Hawkins, be you crazy?"

"Fitch Zeb—"Git back in th' ring un' don't skulk! Ever since Isaac sent me them likes of N'York papers 'bout Sullivan and Killen I've bin jost itchin' ter lick some one!"

First Pullman Porter—"What yer so nervous 'bout Johnson?"

Second Porter—"It's a quarter out; dat is what I's nervous 'bout. Done blacked a pair ob my own boots by mistake fer dat nigger's in de foth suction."

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—The Central Kentucky Fair Association this year was a grand success in every way, and encourages the stockholders to go on with improvements.

—The marriage of Miss Ida Eastham, of this place, to Mr. Arthur Kennedy, of Omaha, Nebraska, will take place at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, an account of which will be given next issue.

—Rev. E. H. Pearce is again in his pulpit at the Methodist church, after an absence of several weeks in the East. He is greatly improved in health and had a much-needed rest. During his absence his pulpit was filled by Rev. Crow, of Louisville, who made himself very popular with the Methodist people during his stay here.

—Dr. Cowan, one of the most eminent physicians in Central Kentucky, has been confined by illness for several days at his home on 4th street. He is reported to be improving and hopes soon to be able to resume his practice. Rev. E. M. Green, of the 1st Presbyterian church, was so much indisposed Sunday as to be unable to fill his pulpit.

—Miss Lettie Burlbank and brother, Sam, of Atlanta, Ga., accompanied by Miss Annabelle Irvine left last Thursday for a visit to relatives in Springfield, Ohio. Mr. E. B. Thiele, of Rowland & Thiele, left Friday for the Eastern market to purchase a full line of goods. Mr. Louis DeLoode, of Lexington, visited his sister, Mrs. W. G. Welsh, during the fair and remained over Sunday.

—Miss Tinele Boone, of Somerset, is visiting relatives in the county. Among the distinguished visitors at the fair last week were Congressman James B. McCreary and Hon. R. C. Warren, representative elect from Lincoln—the same is the gentleman who knocked out a prohibition preacher candidate for the legislature quite recently. Col. John Dietrich Craddock, of the Paris, Kentucky, took in the fair last week. Col. H. M. McCarty of the Nicholasville Journal, was among us last week.

—On Friday evening Uncle Joseph Toins, of color, was arrested by deputy W. S. Logan and taken to Somerset to answer for the crime of having sold Johnny Ireland and Rolly Ireland a drink of whiskey on the night of Nov. 10th, 1887. Uncle Joseph was first harnessed by the police court here, but was acquitted, the proof showing that at the time of the alleged sale he and his orchestra were at the Opera House making music for a show. That drink which Rolly and Johnny got, still pestering somebody, Uncle Joseph was indicted in the circuit court, but on a trial before Judge Morrow and a jury was cleared. In June 1887 Deputy U. S. Marshal Owsley came down from Lancaster and arrested the same old Uncle for selling the same old drink and took him before U. S. Commissioner Burnside. Joseph was again acquitted.

Early that fall he was again picked up by another U. S. Marshal and taken before U. S. Commissioner Toole, charged with selling the same drink to the same men. Commissioner Toole investigated the case thoroughly and again found the old Joe breathing the air of freedom. Commissioner Porch, at Somerset, arrived at the same conclusion Saturday, but Major Joseph B. Gains is by no means certain that his trials are over as a rumor has reached his ears that the next time he is nabbed the case will be thrown into chancery, in which event his pursuers have some hope of securing a conviction, as it is well known that chancery is a hard thing to get out of. Another romance connected with that awful drink purchased by Rolly and Johnny Ireland is that after Joe's acquittal in the police court, John Campbell, a supernumerary colored soul, was convicted of the sale, but taking an appeal to circuit court was there acquitted.

DRIPPING SPRINGS.

—We have had 44 arrivals (boarders) since Friday morning and 25 more to come Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Among the lot will be John E. Mett, of Richmond, Jack China, of Harrodsburg, Steve Walker and John Parkes, of Garrard, with a pack of 50 fox hounds, Judge George Denny and family and J. H. Beauchamp and wife, of Lexington, are occupying the Lodge.

—Tell "Eddie" we have the girls now and the prettiest lot he ever saw together so we will expect him Tuesday evening.

—We have a grand ball every night except Sunday. We still have a few vacant rooms. Respectfully, D. G. Slaughter.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear, bright and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellow or blotched skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beggs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted. A. R. Denny, Druggist.

It is customary for all our people to turn out when a circus comes to town. It is also customary for all who have ever tried Gault's chicken cholera cure to recommend it to their neighbors. It is sold on the plan of "no cure, no pay," by McRoberts & Stage.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mrs. Judge Mat Walton, of Lexington, is visiting friends here.

—Charley Walker, of Atlanta, is visiting his brother, Judge W. E. Walker.

—Alex Sutton, an old citizen living in the Tyro neighborhood, died on last Friday.

—Mrs. Robert T. West and child, of Washington City, are visiting at John K. West's.

—George A. Yates, of Covington, is here to conduct the teachers' institute for Garrard county.

—One of our prominent citizens has perfected arrangements to ascend with the balloon man at the Richmond fair on Thursday. It is not John Dunn, either.

—R. H. Batson has had his store room closed for the past week refitting and furnishing in cherry. Mr. Batson has taken a lease from Capt. E. W. Lillard on the room for three years more.

—We all regret very much that Pete Hampton has discontinued his daily visits to Lancaster. Pete is a jolly, good, accommodating fellow and we would like for him to renew his visits.

—W. S. Elkin, of Atlanta, Ga., is at the home of his father, Capt. T. A. Elkin. Our sick, Mrs. Dr. Elkin, Louis Landrum and Uncle Randall Bettis are all doing well. Mr. J. Hansberry West is on the sick list this week.

—We are sorry our neighboring village of Huble made such a bad start in political life. As many good people as surround her ought to have started her in the right column. We hope she will clean her record next election.

—The finest crop of tobacco we ever saw is now being cut from the 12 acres of land rented of Charley Wood by Andrew and George Pope, in Boyle county. This piece of land was leased by the Pope Brothers for three years at $30 per acre for each year.

—Our people are fast becoming in favor of free turnpikes, and when the matter is investigated very few will doubt but what it is better and cheaper for the people generally. Even the stockholders would be benefited by free turnpikes if they had to give away their stock.

—It is generally regretted by our people that Jake Joseph has determined to sell out and move to Cincinnati. Jake has made many warm friends and we hate to give him up. No better citizen have we than Jake. His house and lot and stock of goods are all advertised for sale.

—Thirty-five members of the Salvation Army were arrested at St. Paul Sunday for making too much noise.

—Henry Grumbling, a laborer, fell into a box of newly-slacked lime at Mansfield, O., and was smothered to death.

—The Augusta, Ga., Orphan Asylum, valued at $100,000, was almost entirely destroyed by fire Sunday. All the children were saved.

Col. W. P. Walton, of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, seems to have forgotten that there is an indictment pending against him for criminal libel, and we expect Judge Boyd would be glad if it would never be thought of again, but he has stepped in the INTERIOR JOURNAL, threshing machine, and his bones will have to be stripped. We do not begrudge his future prospects at all. When it comes to pass that a man becomes so important a newspaper is forbidden to touch him, we will quit the business. Unfortunately there is not enough newspaper pointing for the good of the country.—Frankfort Capital.

Ben Butterworth is a good ball player and a Washington correspondent says that "he can pick the leather sphere out of the air with great dexterity." Instead of burying his talents in Congress, it would have Ben Butterworth his white "sign" with a ballclub.—Chicago Herald.

It appears that a flag with 42 stars will not be legal until the next Fourth of July, the law expressly stating that for each new State admitted a star shall be added, the addition to take effect the following July Fourth.

EDITOR W. A. CRESS, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, was down Sunday. He looks extremely well considering the fact that he had been used as a target by Mr. Vernon's desperado, Proctor. May he live to score it into many others who defy law and attempt to walk rough-shod over the country at large.

MISS GATEWOOD AND BIRD GIVENS, Bessie Engelman and Lizzie Bright, of this county, Mrs. George Alsop and Miss Bettie Vannarshall, of Harrodsburg, Messrs. Geo. and Bowen Givens, Dick Denny, Charlie Crow and Calvin Carpenter composed a party to Hitting Springs Saturday to spend a week.

HARRY McCARTY, of the Jessamine Journal, was in this city Saturday. There is some talk of his being a candidate for doorkeeper of the next House, but we could not bring him out on the subject. He came within one vote of being doorkeeper a couple of years ago and if he desires the office we trust he will get there this time by a handsome majority. He is a clever gentleman, a good denouncer and we would like to see him fill the position.

The Danville Advocate seems to be "dead stuck" on Eichhorn and his band. In the "notes" of the fair, 23 in number, 11 of them are complimentary mentions of either the professor or some of his assistants. Joe Moore's savage breast seems to have been smothered. He perhaps is "drowning" the band up with the prospect of an engagement as a star performer on the "lazzoo."

While attending the Danville Fair and just as the troops were going on Mrs. I. M. Bruce felt something pulling at her watch chain and looked down to find that it had been cut in two. It was evidently the effort of a pickpocket to steal her watch, but luckily for Mrs. Bruce it proved a failure on his part. It is said that a gentleman from the East had had his pocket relieved of a considerable amount of filthy lucre by the slick-fingered scoundrels and from other counties like reports come.

The Richmond Register and the Winchester Democrat are engaged in the controversy as to which is the larger of the two towns in which those papers are printed. They should quit this and keep from the outside world the real sizes of the towns, for there are people who think that the population of either would run up into the thousands and it would be a pity for them to know how really small those places are. Saw wood and saw nothing as Stanford does, gentlemen, and you may soon have a city of like proportions.

CUMBERLAND FALLS.—The most delightful summer resort in Kentucky—Cumberland Falls—is this season enjoying one of the largest of its existence. Guests are there from several States including a large number of the belles and beaux of the country and those fond of gayety should go there at once. The more reserved are also there in numbers and the guests make their selections of the two classes. It is the place to spend the month of August. The fare is a big feature and is unexcelled. Ask your friends about Cumberland Falls and see if they do not say it is a model summer resort.

The following is a list of Brother Barnes' appointments. Persons wishing to communicate with him can address him at any of the points on the days named: Tuesday, 13th, Hustonville, Wednesday, 14th, Danville, Thursday, 15th, Lebanon, Friday, 16th, Campbellsville, Saturday, 17th, Springfield, Sunday, 18th, Springfield, Monday, 19th, Bardonia, Tuesday, 20th, Elizabethtown, Wednesday, 21st, Glasgow, Thursday, 22d, Bowling Green, Friday, 23d, Franklin, Saturday, 24th, Russellville, Sunday, 25th, Hopkinsville, Monday, 26th, Paducah, Tuesday, 27th, Henderson, Wednesday, 28th, Owensboro, Thursday, 29th, Carrollton, Friday, 30th, Shelbyville, Saturday, 31st, Pewee, Sunday, Sept. 1st, Pewee, Monday, 2d, La Grange, Tuesday, 3d, Independence.

The jubilee Thursday night was not a magnificent affair, but those who came to town and participated showed their delight and appreciation of having such an honorable, upright and able man as Mr. R. C. Warren to represent them in the next legislature. The Remetown band was present and discoursed some purely democratic music and Brent Hays, who was in charge, was as happy as mortals ever get. Mr. Warren was called on for a speech and made an interesting one of ten minutes duration. Col. E. Polk Johnson was then introduced and in his usually happy manner made a telling speech which was received with bursts of applause from first to last. Mr. W. H. Miller then took the stump and after paying Mr. Warren a high compliment as an official, a true democrat and a gentleman without spot or blemish, he thanked the colored brethren who had voted and worked for the nominee and pledged to them that their interests should be carefully looked to when the legislature next convened. The band played "Home Sweet Home," after which "three cheers for Warren" were given and the crowd dispersed, as enthusiastic a set of men as has assembled here for many a day.

Go to Thompson's tonsorial art rooms for a clean shave or neat hair trim.

The "Merrie Kid Crowd" will meet with Miss Foxie Pennington on Thursday night next.

I am still the agent for the celebrated Dick's Patent Feed Cutter, the most satisfactory cutter that has ever been sold. Any size can be had, from hand to horse power. T. Metcalf.

FIRE.—Mr. Will Alexander, who lives near Shelby City, attended the fair at Danville Friday and on returning home, found his house and contents in ashes. It is not known how the fire originated, but very probably from the usual cause, a defective flue. His loss is about $2,000.

The game of ball between the Interior Journals and the Waddle Bros., of Somerset, at Danville Friday next, promises to be a most interesting one. Messrs. R. G. Evans, of Danville, and John Bash, of Somerset, will umpire and none need fear that justice will not be dealt. The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp and the prospects for a large attendance is good. Admission 25 cts.

MR. R. W. GAINES rode accidentally into a lumber-line nest while out on his farm the other day and his horse, after being stung a few times, reared, plunged and threw him, his foot hanging in one of the stirrups. One of his sons, who was near by, made a desperate attempt to catch the horse as he ran by him dragging his father by one foot, but the animal was too busy fighting bees to be halted in his mad career. Before Mr. Gaines was seriously hurt the stirrup leather broke and extricated him from his perilous situation. His escape from instant death was miraculous, his neighbors say.

As Mr. W. G. SPEIGEL, a guest at Crab Orchard Springs, and Miss Moore, a Crab Orchard belle, were returning from the Danville Fair Friday, a buggy dashed by them in front of Eld. Joseph Ballon's residence, frightening their horse and causing him to turn quickly and upset the buggy and its occupants. No damage was done save a broken shaft and a severe shake up of Mr. Speigel and Miss Moore, but the mile walk to Mr. John Bright's, where a buggy was obtained, proved exceedingly unpleasant to the worn-out pair, who had been at the fair in the jam and bustle of the immense crowd the entire day.

As Jim Thompson was walking down Main street Sunday night about 9 o'clock he was accosted by George Middleton and Ike Hubble, both colored men and both pretty well filled with whisky. After using filthy epithets towards Mr. Thompson, one of the men knocked him down and was in the act of beating him over the head while he was down, when friends of Mr. Thompson interfered and put a stop to it. They were arrested by Marshal Owens and placed in jail, where they spent the night. At their trial yesterday morning the jury hung and another one impeached, which resulted likewise and the trial was set for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the prisoners being held in $100 bond.

JIM TALL.—We predicted in our last issue that it would only be a short while till our fighting coon, Jim Tall, would again be heard from and very correct we were. On Saturday night he and Mit Embury, another negro, got into hot words when Tall's favorite expression, "d—n lie," was given. Embury started toward him to resent the insult, when Tall displayed his razor. Stepping back several feet Embury drew his pistol, but in the meantime Ed Johnson, wanting to play the role of peacemaker, interfered, and held Tall, one hand on his arm, the other grabbing his shirt near the breast. "Let him loose," Embury called out, but Johnson still held him and again the request was made without it being granted. Embury then fired, the ball going through Johnson's hand and lodging under the skin in Tall's breast. The fight thus ended, with our man Tall unhurt and again ready to engage in a rout.

A DRUMMER who spent Sunday here told of his travels the week prior in Bell and Harlan counties and also of a four-mile ride without his trousers. Said he, "I hung my pants on a chair near the window of the farm-house I stopped at and the next morning they were conspicuous for their absence. I searched the room, but found them not and called to my host to lend me a pair of his. He had gone hunting though and had worn his only pair and my only chance was to borrow a mother Hubbard, or rather a skirt resembling one from the lady of the house and go out to breakfast. I hitched my horses with the garment still on, but shed it as soon as I had gotten into my seat in my wagon and sent it back to the kind old lady who was full of sympathy for me. Four miles had to be driven before a store could be reached and I wrapped the duster around my lower extremities and set out. The country store was reached, but numerous ladies had gathered there to attend the opening of new goods and of course I could not go in and try on a pair. Taking several pairs of his best pants I drove down in a hollow near by and there ended the trials and tribulations that had attended me the entire morning." The story is a true one for the drummer showed the L. J. man the pants and also several letters he had gotten in regard to it.

The Richmond Fair begins to-day and many will attend from this place.
